GRAPHIC DESIGN PORTFOLIO

I have been a professional graphic designer & illustrator for almost two full decades. My career has been a playful mix of working at design studios, in-house at corporations, and freelancing for myself. While this particular PDF focuses on select graphic design projects, my robust illustration portfolio can be viewed at:

MIDNIGHT RAMBLER COCKTAIL MENU

Tasked with creating kawaii pokemon-inspired characters to embody each new cocktail at Dallas's Midnight Rambler Bar, located in the basement of the Joule Hotel downtown. Each drink was inspired by a local geographic location. A project such as this is a perfect example of how I am sometimes able to marry my graphic design and illustration skills, when the project calls for it. Gotta catch 'em all (responsibly)!

TANGO ROOM MENU

Tackling the chef's menu, as well as the wine list, for The Headington Company's Tango Room steak house was an exercise in understated elegance. While not always creatively-demanding, I adore menu design as it showcases principles such as organization, hierarchy, navigation, communication, legibility, and attention to detail.

I was roped into this project by Dallas architecture firm Droese Raney, who was building out the restaurant at the time, and was asked to inject some personality into the new location. We all had a marvelous time playing up the Texas BBQ theme. I drew the State of Texas over 100 times LOL!

V.O.D. BOUTIQUE WEBSITE INVITATIONS & WINDOWS

I have had a professional working relationship with V.O.D. Boutique for over a decade. It has been my task (and my pleasure!) to assist the store in achieving high-end visuals that are on par with the retailer's luxury lines from Paris and New York. I collaborate and work alongside the store's photographer, Molly Dickson, as well as work closely with many of the international brands carried by V.O.D. (R13, Isabel Marant, Thierry Lasry) in an effort to enhance social media, window dressing, private shopping, invitations, packaging, trunk shows, travel excursions, private dinners, and the like.

Guide to the Marais

I'm SO happy to be with you all in Paris! It means so much to spend my birthday with you in my favorite city on the planet at the most beautiful time of the year. I can't wait. On that note - PLEASE NO GIFTS! You being here is more than enough and I don't need or want for absolutely one thing except for continued travel, friendship and celebrations with you forever.

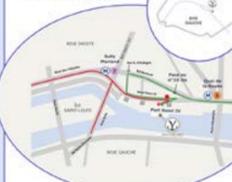

I am even happier that so many of you are staying in my neighborhood, the Marais, so I put together this guide with some of my favorite spots.

Note: All of the locations in this guide are clickable links that will pull up the address in Google Maps.

Port Henri IV Here is a map of the meeting point.

ADDRESS: Port Henri IV Quai Henri IV, 75004

The address should come up on Uber and on maps. If not, you can try the company:

Lunch 12/13

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 13 1:30 PM

LA PETITE PLACE 2 Place de Thorigny

On the day after the party, I have arranged a super casual late lunch at one of my favorite cafes. If you would like to join please let me know.

After lunch, maybe we can all walk to the Picasso Museum across the street, or to the Christmas market by the Hotel de Ville, or Louvre.

Shop

So much shopping everywhere. On and around Rue Vieille du Temple/Rue de Poitou, up and down Rue des Francs Bourgeois, and up and around Rue Charlot.

ROSEANNA 5 Rue Picassot 96 Rue Roubaud

MERCI 111 Boulevard Beaumarchais 868 concept store with music, artwork, books and other little gems for culture

THE FRANKIE SHOP 14 Rue St-Charles 100 vintage clothing shop right here!

Shop

JACQUES GENN 133 Rue de Turbigo If you don't think you really need the decorative Christmas shop, that's fine. I'm sure there's a high-end boutique. Jacques Genn is one of the most beautiful Christmas in France. A gift from him would make a perfect special Christmas gift.

BULY 1603 45 Rue de Saintonge The Maison de Bully is one of the best Buy locations in Paris. The house is in the Marais and has a beautiful interior. This is a perfect place to find someone's very special anniversary gift.

SAMARITANE 9 Rue de la Harpe When I am in Paris, I never get it if you need anything from a proper house. Samaritane is the best place to go. It's in the Marais. Like Ben Morte Samaritane is owned by a friend and just had a massive renovation. There is absolutely everything from the building in France and it's sure it will be the best gift for the holidays. They also had an extraordinary set - recently there was a giant Kusama station outside.

Beauty

If you forget or need any skin care products, there are stores all over Paris called Le My Cosme. There are two in the Marais and they have all the best organic skin care brands as well as makeup.

For a blow dry, there is a chain salon called Zessange which is pretty good and my favorite salon is Marron. There are two locations one in the Marais and one at Palais Royal which would require a taxi or about a 25 minute walk.

If you can get in to the traditional Japanese massage parlor Nature for a shiatsu massage or a tsumami mai DO IT! This is my cure for jet lag and the most beautiful place, you'll feel like you are in Japan.

Eat

Reservations recommended for restaurants. You can easily book online.

CHEZ JANOU 2 Rue Roger Verstraete French food from Provence in a very casual, fun atmosphere. You must get the chocolate croissant!

CHEZ OMAR 47 Rue de Bretagne Long-standing neighborhood bistro - family owned Moroccan food - reasonable and light.

OGATA 18 Rue Duboulaye SO good - the BEST Japanese in a super beautiful setting. There is also a bar, a wine bar and a boutique where you will want to buy everything. OGATA recently received the Michelin star.

Eat

BREIZH CAFE 109 Rue Vieille du Temple Breton food from the greatest spot for afternoon gelato and croissant!

OMI-SAN 82 Rue des Archives Japanese food in a very super cozy setting.

DA MELO CUCINA 42 Rue Charlot An Italian - try shop before for the park in all cases. The shop has great food and is used to be the best in Paris. You'll love it for the "Shawarma" at their specialty.

Takeaway

On and around Rue de Bretagne / Rue Charlot as well as near the Marché des Enfants Rouges there are so many great takeaway food spots - Italian sandwich shops, French bakeries and the best cheese shop, look for the yellow awning!

CHEZ HENESSE 17 Rue de Saintonge Beautiful new French food, very vibrant and a great place for a drink in the gorgeous lobby bar.

KUDRI 100 Rue Amelot The BEST Lebanese food in Paris! Best Lebanese ever - GO!

MARCHE DES ENFANTS ROUGES 1 Rue Cassini's Cheapest food market with great spots to buy food or sit down and eat. Almost walk into.

Drink

MAISON PROUST 29 Rue de Picassot Beautiful new French food, very vibrant and a great place for a drink in the gorgeous lobby bar.

LE MARY CELSTE 1 Rue Cassini's One of my favorite spots for a party cocktail in glass of wine and delicious bar snacks.

CAMBRIDGE PUBLIC HOUSE 8 Rue de Poitou If you love French beer just want a great cocktail, hit up the British pub for a drink and a message too.

RECTOVERSO 6 Rue Portofino The coffee shop on my street! Delicious coffee and more. No menu!

CARETTE TEA HOUSE 25 Rue des Volanges great spot on the beautiful place like shops for a bit and a drink.

Museums

The best museums in Paris don't require a reservation or have big crowds and lines. I have the smaller more unique museums and some of the very best art in the Marais (and free!)

THE MUSÉE DE LA CHASSE ET DE LA NATURE 82 Rue des Archives The Museum of Hunting and Nature is an amazing, the exhibits focus on the relationship between humans and the natural environment throughout time. Very fun and not in a beautiful building.

ARCHIVES NATIONALE 80 Rue des Francs Bourgeois The French National Archives just took by a million times - go if it's free and with a beautiful building!

MUSÉE NATIONAL PICASSO-PARIS 5 Rue de Thorigny The great of the Marais - the amazing Picasso museum with a really beautiful terrace. A must!

DALLAS COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY MERCHANDISE

In an effort to raise funds, create awareness, and to assist in dressing staff & volunteers, I was tasked with creating a series of graphics that could be used as both campaign posters and apparel. The posters were distributed and displayed along the campaign trail, plus the apparel was highly visible due to many of the DCDP staff organically adopting the tshirts as uniforms.

DALLAS COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY BILLBOARD CAMPAIGN

I was brought in on the 2024 Democratic campaign to help bring attention to the DCDP for the upcoming election. I collaborated with the party's communications team on a series of a digital graphics that could educate and engage the viewer on local and national policy issues, in both English and Spanish. The campaign was circulated throughout the DFW metroplex on outdoor digital billboards, mobile billboards, out-of-home screens such as lobbies & elevator banks, as well as served mobile ads to devices via geotargeting & geofencing.

COMMISSARY

Working for the Headington Company, my time is spent assisting the various retailers and restaurants within the company's portfolio with a variety of visual needs including signage, presentations, brand guides, email blasts, invitations, and menus. Commissary, the downtown pastry shop, is my favorite as the branding was unestablished and minimal upon my arrival, thus I was able to really put my own stamp on things and sculpt a more robust brand identity slowly over time.

EMAIL MARKETING

A portion of my time at the Headington Company is spent creating content for email blasts for the restaurants Mirador, Commissary, CBD Provisions, and Sasetta, as well as downtown retailer Traffic Los Angeles and the Midnight Rambler cocktail lounge. While email blasts are certainly less glamorous, I wanted to include these little ephemeral graphics in an effort to display my professionalism and willingness to work on even the smallest of tasks, which are still worthy of as much creativity and attention to detail as one can muster. This is also a chance to show off my ability to be a chameleon when needed, switching between visual identities.

It can be an honest challenge to initially gain a new client's trust for you to create their fledgling brand, but it's also such a genuinely exciting time in their lives - flooded with optimism, embarking on something NEW!
